

Praying for your Parish:

A resource for individuals to use at home

The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.

Matthew 9.37-38

This little booklet provides guidance for those who wish to pray regularly for their parishes. It could be used by a prayer group, but its primary purpose is to support those whose instinct is to “go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father, who is unseen.”

If you’re not sure what to pray about, then your Parish Priest will be glad to talk to you about where s/he would most value your prayers at the moment.

What’s here is a framework, to which your own prayers for current local concerns can be added. We all have our preferred ways of praying, and some people will like the structure offered here but prefer to fill it with their own words. Others will prefer to read the words as they stand, and yet others will like to use a mixture of the words printed here and their own words.

Whatever our preferred, style, we can be confident that our Father always answers when we pray in faith.

Preparation

O God, I am in your presence.

Shut out the world

and all worldly things from me.

Send your Holy Spirit

to help me in my weakness,

and bless to me this time of prayer;

through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Adoration

Do you not know? Have you not heard?
The Lord is the everlasting God,
the Creator of the ends of the earth.
He will not grow tired or weary,
and his understanding no one can fathom.

He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak.

Even youths grow tired and weary,
and young men stumble and fall;

but those who hope in the Lord
will renew their strength.

They will soar on wings like eagles;
they will run and not grow weary,
they will walk and not be faint.

Isaiah 40.28-31

Confession

Almighty God,
long-suffering and of great goodness:
I confess to you,
I confess with my whole heart
my neglect and forgetfulness of your commandments;
my wrong doing, thinking, and speaking;
the hurts I have done to others,
and the good I have left undone.

Please forgive me especially for . . .

O God, forgive me, for I have sinned
against you;
and raise me to newness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Thanksgiving

Thank you, Lord,
for the precious gift of your forgiveness.
I said, “I will confess my transgressions
to the Lord.”

And you forgave the guilt of my sin.
Thank you, Lord,
for the precious gift of your forgiveness.
Amen.

Father God,
I thank you for your many blessings.
Especially now I thank you for . . .
For all of these blessings, I thank you in Jesus’ name.
Amen.

Intercessions

Some people will like to meditate on each section of the Lord’s Prayer, linking it to their own intercessions in the style suggested overleaf. Others will prefer to say the Lord’s Prayer uninterrupted, either before or after their own intercessions. Please just use the style that feels most comfortable to you.

Our Father in Heaven,
Hallowed be your name.

Father, you are the source of all love. Please increase our love for you and for each other.

Your Kingdom come.

Your will be done,
in earth as in heaven.

Father, please help me to discern your will and be obedient to your guidance.

May your will to be done here in this parish.

Give us today our daily bread.

Father, I pray for your blessing and guidance on . . .

Our clergy and lay leaders . . .

Our services and events . . .

Our new and ongoing initiatives . . .

And forgive us our sins,

Father, I pray that you would reveal to your church any ways in which we have let down this parish, any hurts that we have caused.

Please help us to seek forgiveness, and please bring healing where it is needed.

As we forgive those who sin against us.
By your grace, Heavenly Father, please help us to respond in love when difficulties arise, so that your church may be as salt and light to this parish and to the world.

Lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.

Lord of all that is, seen and unseen, I pray in Jesus' name for your protection around this church and this parish.

Please reveal anything that is taking root here which is not of you, that it might be uprooted by the power of your Holy Spirit, and wither in the light of your justice and truth.

For the Kingdom, the power and the glory
are yours,

Now and for ever.

Father, please show us how to reveal your healing love, your power and your glory to the people of this parish. Give us the courage to step out in obedience to you, and keep our feet on the paths you have planned for us.

In Jesus' name we pray.

Amen.

Pray to the Lord of the Harvest

Almighty God, you promised through your Son Jesus Christ always to hear us when we pray in faith.

So now, Lord, I ask that you would send out workers into your harvest field. Please raise up just the right people to serve you here in this parish, so that your will may be done, your Kingdom come, here in this place as it is in Heaven.

For Jesus' sake. Amen.

Additional copies of this leaflet, and a traditional-language version, can be downloaded from www.fossedeanery.co.uk.